Simmons & Simmons has demonstrated its commitment to the Middle East for more than 30 years. Our Abu Dhabi office opened in 1994 and is one of our three offices in the region, where our presence also includes established offices in Doha and Dubai. As well as being one of the largest established international firms in Abu Dhabi, we continue to have one of the largest presences. We provide a comprehensive and integrated service that covers our clients' requirements throughout the Middle East, wherever their business takes them. Our Middle East practice comprises a team of more than 65 specialist lawyers, including Arabic speakers. We work for governments, government departments and agencies, banks, financial institutions, and major domestic and multinational corporations operating in all main sectors of commerce and industry in the Middle East. We bring together a team of lawyers who specialise in projects, finance, corporate, real estate and environmental law, who have worked across a wide range of industries including energy and infrastructure, construction and financial markets. With leading international experience coupled with an in depth knowledge of the region, together with support as needed from our integrated wider network, our Abu Dhabi team is able to respond quickly to our clients' needs with commercially driven, first-class advice.
