Jay Group of Container Companies offer a variety of high-quality marine and inter modal containers, including used, modified and refurbished units. These includes; general purpose containers, standard dry cargo containers, high-cube, open-top, flat-rack, insulated and refrigerated containers and specially modified containers. The boxes are available in all international sizes and observe highest industry specifications. All our depots in India and abroad excel in creating modification on containers, at perhaps the lowest cost in the industry, to meet the requirements of customers. Imagination is the only limit to using containers for myriad unconventional purposes. For example, "Instant Customised Accommodation" units serve as temporary accommodation and storage sites for a wide-range of construction and industrial projects, public utilities, government agencies, community projects, etc. Ready-to-use prefabricated systems are available or can be designed for; offices, ablution blocks, kitchens, stores, truck shops, fixed-end or collapsible flat racks, generator sets, chassis, over-the-road trailers, tank containers etc. Modified containers can also be used for ; file storage, warehousing, equipment storage, snack shacks, welding shops, mobile generator, maintenance centers, emergency response storage, guard shacks, portable shops, mini storage, telecom kiosks etc.
