Bautech International, L.L.C. was established in the Emirates of Dubai in 2002, to provide the complete solution for rebar mechanical splicing. Bautech carries the CBT COUPLERS brand which is divided into two (2) categories: CBT THREADED COUPLER AND CBT PRESSED COUPLER. In a short span of time, Bautech International L.L.C. has grown to become one of the leaders in this field. We have worked on numerous projects with the largest Companies in the U.A.E., including Arabtec, Habtoor Leighton Group, Al Shafar General Contracting and the R.T.A. In fact, Bautech can be considered part of U.A.E. history, after supplying couplers for the prestigious Dubai Metro Project. Bautech International is an approved supplier of couplers from the Dubai Municipality (DCL) Technical Approval Certificate and R.T.A.
