Century Mechanical Systems (CMS) was established in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia in 1982. We started as a small modest trading company serving the needs of HVAC industry, over the time we have grown to be an ambitious group of companies comprising over 28 companies catering to serve the needs and activities of various industries. CMS proudly continues to manufacture and distribute its products across Middle East and beyond borders. This accomplishment indeed proves the drive that CMS pursues in search of excellence. We always endeavor to continue to adopt innovative approach to add value our products and in turn transfer the value to our clients. During this journey CMS has conquered many milestones and has played vital role in construction of many iconic projects throughout GCC along with our group companies in Saudi Arabia, Oman, Qatar, Kuwait & India, and nine operations in UAE to provide strategic footprint from which our international business objectives are being achieved. Over these years CMS with the support from our loyal customers, help from dedicated and hardworking team of talented and skilled employees, has undisputedly led CMS to grow to be the leading name in the HVAC industry.
