Since its formation in 1982 ATAI has expanded its Al Jubail, base in the Eastern province, to become one of the largest suppliers of air management and acoustic products in the Kingdom, due to continued investment in facilities, equipment and most importantly in our employees. A Quality Assured ISO 9001:2000 registered company since 1995, we pride ourselves on our levels of service in all areas of our business and the quality of our products. ATAI hold long standing accreditations and relationships with SMACNA, AMCA and LPCB, along with UL product approvals. All products are manufactured in strict compliance with SMACNA, HVCA and all other industry standards. We are continually striving to strengthen our position within the marketplace by the introduction and evolution of new and existing products, and by building strong relationships with other market leading companies by way of licensed manufacturing agreements. ATAI is committed to a continual review of all procedures and products, so that we can offer our clients market leading product solutions to suit any required application.
