Howden's operation in Dubai was established in 2008 when Howden acquired a majority stake in local broking company European Insurance Brokers. The team in Dubai is made up of 40 insurance professionals with varied local, regional and international experience, and we are committed to providing excellent local and regional expertise and service, whilst passing on to our clients the benefits of being part of an international broking group. Client focus is at the heart of what we do.

No matter how difficult the situation, we give it everything we have, because we are not just interested in winning your business, we want to make sure you stay with us.
