The following introduction to our company will enlighten you of our visions, standards, goals, what we have offered to our previous and current clients, and wishes to do so for you. Al Fayha Aluminium Factory (AFAF) is a distinguished company in the field of aluminium subcontracting with over 25 years of experience. In spite of the furious rivalry and global market environment, it has grown into one of the primary companies in quality and output. AFAF has been able to grow through efficient management, and what we call "Hands On" production. Hands On is a type of management that assures not only our clients but also our suppliers, get the best standard of quality available with a hassle-free service. The Hands On experience is the interaction of the sales, purchasing, engineering, manufacturing, installation, and maintenance departments for the completion of projects.
