Curtains and Upholstery

The way we do curtains is equivalent to an artist sculpturing a masterpiece. While dressing a room with curtains we put the tone, the design, the choice of the fabric, of the trimmings speak for the style and build the ambiance and the style, the refinement and the detailing of the workmanship are a must in upholstery and these criteria make the difference in quality.

Sumptuous

These curtains made in a very simple style but using very rich fabric giving a dramatic elegance.

Romantic Window

Refined romantic window for a very distinguish room, using transparent sheers to let the light in as much as possible.

A Touch of Art

All is in the detailing and the refinement of the workmanship that has been executed with art.

American style

Simple style, the fabric choice is of importance, as it blends with the armchair and the bedcover, giving this bedroom its warmth.

Classic Curtain

The curtain richness and the fabric drapes have to be imposing, the details are refined, and all this gives this official room the note that should emanate from it.

Our upholstery service is nearer to haute couture than prêt à porter.

Islet Curtain

Another way of doing window treatment.

Window Treatment

Dressing the living room with a silk fabric matching the sofa fabric and the wall paint.

Leather Curtain

In a very trendy Living.

Lace Curtain

Giving a romantic baroque atmosphere to the bedroom.

Curtain with Silk Fabric

Blending with the wall paint and fabric used are silk, velvet finish with trimming beads.
