Unveiled by His Highness Sheikh Tahnoon bin Muhammad Al Nahyan in 1985, Hili Fun City was referred to as the Disneyland of the GCC, hosting visitors from all over the region including several royal families and VIPs. This much loved theme park reopened on November 27, 2009 after having undergone a complete refurbishment and transformation. Hili Fun City is packed with more than 30 attractions ranging from thrilling rides and adventures to gentle rides for children of all ages and there's plenty for both mum and dad to enjoy too.
