As one of the principal names in the segment; we leverage to deliver business value to our customers. Our innovation, steady and sustainable growth blends with a solid traditional background consisting of the same underlying values and commitment to quality yet with unique insights and a more youthful and entrepreneurial style of functioning. Since its establishment, the company has gone through tremendous expansion, to the stage that we can claim ourselves as a regional market leader and a global player. Our name 'Dar Al Rokham' means 'Home of Marble' in Arabic. As a 'Home', we are closer to the customer and have a plethora of associated fields in which we can work. It is our endeavour to provide our customers with total solutions
