With on-time and accurate deliveries, substantial inventories, and fast and helpful support from expert service professionals, Al Accad General Trading is committed to quality. This gives customers not only access to an encyclopaedic knowledge, but also total peace of mind. Our team of knowledgeable employees sincerely cares about its customers and understands their requirements. They have the technical skills to meet the unique needs of customers and to resolve their desires and challenges quickly and efficiently. Everyone at Al Accad goes above and beyond what would be normally expected to ensure an unrivalled level of service and quality, guiding and assisting customers with the utmost integrity and professionalism. This is fuelled by an excellent working relationship with our manufacturing suppliers, allowing us to offer competitive and individualised solutions to meet the varied and particular needs and requirements of each of our customers. We have become the No.1 choice for those people who can't afford to compromise when it comes to the quality, selection and price of their automotive spare parts.
