The desert safari Dubai is something that every tourist love to do it and it is no doubt that this is the best program, but you must select the right agency, which perform the program that exceeds your expectation. I been for a perfect desert safari in Dubai, a few days ago, I felt it is worth for the money I paid, but with another agency I lost my one day- as we booked our program initially with hotel travel desk. I would like to share my experience with all of you because it is very important that one must understand the destination and its tourism. I came to Dubai with friends for a short break, we have booked our hotel with an agent in UK, but we did not book any of the tours, because the tour prices were higher by 4 times with our agent in UK. We were staying in a leading 5 star hotel in Dubai, we approached hotel's travel desk, and they booked for a safari tour with a price of AED 275. In afternoon around 3.30 we were taken by a mini bus!!!, quite old and noisy but it was fine for purpose. We asked the driver where the 4x4, the driver said we would get it in the desert. We were a total of 18 guests from various hotels in the bus, taken to a place after driving around 25 minutes then stopped for more than 30 minutes waiting for the 4x4 to go for the safari. We noticed there were another group already waiting to be taken for safari/camp before us. Finally the 4x4 came we were taken directly to the safari camp within 6 minutes, we reach the camp is very close to the road we can see vehicles were passing through the road close to the camp. It is funny we had different expectation, there was no safari. The camp was more like a camel farm..just basic. We got surprised as one among the participants of us already been to the safari. My intension of writing my experience about the Desert Safari Dubai is to educate you, not to get cheated by the hotel front office or the travel desk.
