ruya is a new style of community Islamic bank that delivers a digital banking experience and is guided by pillars of fairness, transparency and social responsibility. A bank that combines cutting-edge technology with Islamic banking principles, ruya is deeply rooted in the community and provides support to families, entrepreneurs, and small businesses. An open-door community centre serves as a hub of education and support, encouraging financial literacy. Committed to shaping a banking experience that goes beyond transactions, ruya is building a strong, connected community.
